

English for Socializing

Levels 2A and above

The English for Socializing course is a 24-hour course that is designed for anyone who needs English to socialize in a professional context. It will enable people to build good relationships with international clients and colleagues.

This course will help you chat with ease. Participating students should already be at a pre-intermediate level of English to practice. Each unit has a different topic and offers well-structured exercises and tasks that allow you to practice conversational techniques and strategies and develop your soft skills.

You will develop your skills by:

- Reading texts that offer opportunities for discussion;
- Discussing issues relevant to the topics in each unit;
- Learning useful cross-cultural tips and idioms;
- Exploring socializing skills and topics for small talk;
- Stimulating role-plays;
- Getting helpful feedback from the course instructor.
